

“How do you feel, Pastor Sol?”

That’s the question everyone keeps asking me.

Recently, my wife and I married off one of our precious daughters. It’s a big deal to marry off your children, whom you’ve seen grow from little ones to adults. No matter how many children you have, it’s no small thing.

And that’s why everyone keeps asking me, “Pastor Sol, how do you feel?”

Yes, it’s always hard for us parents to “let go” of our beloved children because we love them so much and care about their well-being. But as believers, isn’t it our ultimate desire that they be in God’s will and walk in His ways? There’s no better place to be than in the center of God’s will.

So, honestly, I’m doing just fine. Mainly because I know they have built a Christ-centered marriage. They share their love for the Lord, serve together in the church, and encourage one another to grow closer to Him.

Their prayer is that they individually love God more than they love each other.

I’m confident that with this attitude, they will experience the abundant life Jesus promised and live their lives “to the full.”

We are all created for God, to love Him by serving Him, to obey Him, and to carry out His purposes in our lives. I’m glad this new couple can help one another stay the course, keep pursuing God, and live for Him.

Please join us in praying for them, and for all married couples, that their unions will propel them to be even more effective in becoming missional and living out the Gospel impact that God intends for us.

PRAISES AND PRAYERS

RED ENGLISH YOUNG ADULT GROUP

- Leaders: Praise God for our leaders! Of our 10 leaders, 7 are returning and 3 have stepped up to serve for the first time. Praise God for their willingness to serve and faithfulness to Living Water.
- New Members: Praise God for new members who have joined Living Water! Many of them have recently moved to the Seattle area and have decided to make ECC their home church.
- Small Groups: Praise God for how He is working in our small groups and using them to grow our young adults in their faith and with one another.
- Apologetics Study: This semester, we are studying apologetics to wrestle with difficult questions of the faith, seek God for answers, and share what we learn with those around us. Pray that the Spirit would guide our discussions and draw us closer to Himself even when we have doubts or questions.
- Lisu Missions Trip: Pray for the Lisu Missions Trip Team as they prepare and train for their trip to Thailand in Feb 2025. Pray that the Lord would refine and use us to share the Gospel with the Lisu people.
- Growth: Pray that God would continue to grow our young adults to love Him more, know each other more deeply, and live out our faith in obedience.

PRAY FOR OUR MISSIONARIES

Rev. Low (Boonprasert Vijitrakul) and Boon Har are local Thai missionaries and active church planters in Northern Thailand. Their community outreach programs include drug rehabilitation, a boarding school for displaced or orphaned children, and a community outreach center. Many places in Thailand including ChiangMai and ChiangRai experienced severe flooding. Houses were destroyed, and churches and many villagers were affected. Please pray for restoration after the flood. Please continue to pray for the growth of their youth and preschool ministries and the good development of their Building Strong Family and Community Outreach project. Please also pray for their dear co-worker Rev. Thaworn to recover from cancer.

PRAY FOR THE WORLD

- Please pray for our US election process. May the Holy Spirit guide voters to seek the Lord's will regarding candidates and ballot measures. May the Lord be gracious to poll workers and election officials as they fulfill their responsibilities and may He preserve the peace throughout the nation. May fellow Christians accept God's work in the lives of their brothers and sisters and continue to love one another, especially if they are called to vote differently.
- Please pray for an end to the Sudan civil war. Though it is barely mentioned in the news, thousands continue to die weekly. May the Lord protect those trapped in the midst of the conflict and raise peacemakers who will help the two warring generals bring an end to the conflict.
