

New Year's Resolutions

When I first learned what New Year's resolutions were during high school, I thought they were silly. If you wanted to exercise regularly, eat healthier, spend less time on screens, or read your Bible more, why would you wait for the New Year to do something about it? Why not implement these positive life changes as soon as you think about it?

As I grew older, I began to realize that there is some merit to being intentional about reflecting on your past year and looking forward to the year ahead at the same time every year. There is something significant about regular rhythms or traditions in a year.

You could show love to your spouse on any day of the year, but there is something significant about loving him or her on your anniversary.

You could celebrate how far you have come in life any day of the year, but there is something significant about celebrating your life on your birthday.

You could spend time with your family any day of the year, but there is something significant about a family trip or vacation.

The Jews were particularly good at rhythms and traditions in their year because God commanded them to observe them. Leviticus 23 lays out God's instructions for seven sacred assemblies and festivals throughout the year to reflect and remember significant events in their history, like when God delivered them from Egypt and they did not have time to leaven their bread (Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread, Lev 23:4-8), or God's provision for the harvest (The Feast of Firstfruits, Lev. 23:9-14, and the Feast of Weeks, Lev. 23:15-22), or when Israel had to wander the desert and live in temporary homes (Festival of Tabernacles, Lev. 23:33-43). Israel could have remembered God's deliverance from Egypt, thanked Him for the harvest, or reflected on their time in the desert at any time of the year, but God instructed them to do so at particular times in their year. Clearly, God thinks there is something significant about reflecting on and celebrating something at a particular time of the year.

As we begin 2025, I encourage you to spend time with God reflecting on this past year and looking forward to the year ahead. How did God show up or reveal Himself to you in 2024? What do you need to thank Him for and celebrate? How did He grow you and your family? What might He be leading you to do or change in 2025? Let us resolve to pursue and love God even more in this upcoming year by reflecting on His goodness to us in the last year.

PRAISES AND PRAYERS

SEATTLE MANDARIN CONGREGATION

- Seven individuals from the Seattle Mandarin Congregation were baptized on December 15. Praise the Lord! We thank God for the Seeker's Class team, who invited, served, and witnessed to our friends through the gospel. We are grateful for everyone's efforts in spreading the good news to the world.
- We praise the Lord for the Seattle Mandarin Choir, led by Sister Lydia Hwang. They have worked diligently to prepare and present a wonderful Christmas Sunday worship service and Christmas Eve Candlelight Service!
- We thank God for the success of the Life Care Ministry retreat held on December 7. Under Sister Justina's leadership, the Life Care Ministry has actively served those in need and nurtured the coworkers involved in this ministry.
- Pray for the upcoming new series in both preaching and Sunday school titled "The Gospel Message Shared by Disciples." May the Lord use it to help us grow in maturity as a missional church!
- We have formed a new fellowship, the Fruits Fellowship, from the Bread Fellowship for families with young children. Pray for this new fellowship to receive blessings, grow, and develop, that it may bring blessings to many while being witnesses of the gospel to others.
- We will welcome six new members to ECC at the beginning of the year. May God bless them and make them a blessing to the church!

PRAY FOR OUR MISSIONARIES

Devendra and Koko Rai are a part of the Commission to Every Nation. They are involved with setting up Bible School on Wheels (BSOW) and setting up churches in NE India and other parts of Asia. They requested prayers for BSOW to take root among the Nepali workers in Japan. Currently there are no Japanese or Nepali translators; please pray for God to provide them with one. Devendra is seeing God's work. After meeting them, K, a young teacher from India, witnessed a horrible car accident and she took care of a small child until emergency services came. K realized that God had caught her attention. Now K has become a missionary in Japan. Please pray that the door of the gospel will be greatly opened in Japan.

PRAY FOR THE WORLD

- Please pray for the families and friends of the victims of the airplane crashes in Azerbaijan and South Korea. May the Lord comfort them with His Presence during their time of mourning.
- Please continue to pray for an end to the conflicts in the Middle East (Gaza, Iraq, Israel, Lebanon, and Syria). May the Lord raise peacemakers to bring an end to the violence and may the Lord be gracious and merciful to the millions caught amid the conflict. May the Lord comfort those who have suffered loss and grant hope to those who cry out to the Lord.

Pastor Jeff Ting's Retirement and Mandarin Pastor Recruitment for the Edmonds Campus

Pastor Jeff Ting is scheduled to retire at the end of July this year. ECC has actively begun the pastoral search process for the Edmonds Campus.

If you know of a suitable candidate, please refer them to the church website (<https://eccseattle.org/en/open-positions/>) for details and application instructions. Our church is seeking a Mandarin pastor who demonstrates spiritual maturity, has at least three years of church-related ministry experience, holds a Master of Divinity degree or an equivalent theological qualification, and has a deep understanding of both Chinese and Western cultures.
