

Pastoral Newsletter

Dear Church Family,

As Elder Paul shared this past Sunday, we are reminded that the Christian life is not passive, but expressed through loved-filled service. The motivation starts with love from God. We see how love is modeled for us by Christ, and we, in turn, act out love with strength from God and through the gifts we have been given.

When we think of service, many times we reflect on how we can serve the church, which usually means our current context, at ECC. What would it mean for us to look beyond our four walls and engage in something much larger? Do something that we have not done before or something uncomfortable for us? Are we willing to express this love that has been ingrained in us by being an active participant with the Kindred movement (which is coming up in May), helping in the preparations, or by joining a Kindred inter-church small group? This is a way we can walk alongside each other, serving together.

With regards,
Minister Steve

Prayers for Our ECC Community

PRAISES AND PRAYERS

REDMOND CANTONESE CONGREGATION

- Praise God for the new council He has raised up to serve our church. We thank Him for the spirit of unity and cooperation among them, as each one serves faithfully according to the gifts God has given.
- Praise God for the willing and serving hearts in our congregation. More than half of our regular attendees are actively involved in ministries. We give thanks for this testimony of love and commitment.
- Praise God for our Bible reading and sharing groups. Through these groups, members encourage one another by sharing how God's Word meets them in their daily lives, and they support one another through prayer.
- Pray that the Lord will call and prepare His servant to shepherd the Redmond Cantonese congregation, and that He will lead us in His perfect timing and wisdom.
- Pray for the Easter baptismal service, that the Lord would move in the hearts of those who are ready to publicly confess their faith and respond to His call.
- Pray for the council and leaders' retreat on March 7, that it would be a time of rest, renewal, and spiritual refreshing, and that together we may seek and discern God's vision for our congregation.

PRAY FOR OUR MISSIONARIES

Annie Saengsirikhun was born in Lashio, Myanmar. Her husband, Paul, is a preacher, and they have two sons. Annie started full-time ministry in 2009, and she served in two student centers for 13 years. In 2023, she started the Ministry Mercy Home, which is a student center providing education to students who would otherwise have no access to learning. Thank God for His grace and guidance – this semester has now come to a smooth close. Students attending only Chinese classes will return home at the end of the month. Recently, they took students on an afternoon outing; the smiles on the children's faces are a testament to God's grace. Praise the Lord, under His care and guidance, Annie, her husband, and all students have passed the past six months in safety, joy, and good health.

PRAY FOR THE WORLD

Please pray for the northeastern US as it continues to battle a series of winter storms this week. May the Lord be merciful to help those most vulnerable to find warm shelter, watch over those who must work outside, and grant grace to everyone whose livelihoods, travel plans, and daily activities have been impacted by the storms. Please pray for the Lord to counter the growing secularism in Eastern Europe. Home to many past revivals, may the Lord once again re-ignite the faith of God's people and open the hearts and minds of those who have yet to know Jesus. Please pray especially for the campus ministries to help university students rediscover their Christian heritage and make it part of their lives once again.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME BEGINS NEXT SUNDAY, 3/8

- Don't forget to set your clocks forward ("Spring Forward") one hour when Daylight Saving Time takes effect at 2 AM next Sunday. Don't be late for service!
