

PASTORAL NEWSLETTER

In Matthew 28:18–20, Jesus stands in resurrected authority and gives His followers a mission that is both global and deeply personal: to go and make disciples, baptize, teach obedience, and trust in His constant presence. The Great Commission is given not to perfect people, but to worshiping disciples who still struggled with doubt, reminding believers that God often works through imperfect and uncertain people. The Christian life is not passive but is active participation in God’s kingdom; as believers we are called to intentionally go out and make disciples in every season of life. Across every demographic, the Great Commission was never intended to be completed alone; Jesus promises, “I am with you always,” assuring the church that His presence, power, and Spirit empower ordinary people together to live with eternal purpose and participate in God’s redemptive mission to the world.

PRAISES AND PRAYERS

REDMOND ENGLISH CONGREGATION

Prayers:

- May God give us wisdom on how add a second service in a way that ministers to all and preserves our fellowship.
- May God move us through the upcoming Kindred preaching series.
- May God bless our travels during the upcoming summer months.

Praises:

- Praise God for so many people baptized Easter Sunday.
- Praise God for new babies; at the same time, we pray for those whose pregnancies have been complicated.
- Praise God for the many new friends, brothers and sisters in Christ, He has given us this past year.

Pray for Our Missionaries

Grace and Jonathan Lui and their children served in Colorado Springs, and then relocated to Vancouver, BC, Canada, as Jonathan took on a new role as the International Missions Director with the Navigators. They lead a small team providing oversight to international missionaries. During a short-term missions trip to Insole River, one of the team members expressed a greater desire to stay and serve in Ecuador longer-term. This really encouraged them. For this reason, they've also been scouting sending location opportunities in Cambodia and Thailand for a new generation of disciple-makers to live and serve amongst the unreached. Please continue to pray for God to call His workers into the harvest field, and for Jonathan and Grace's spiritual, mental, and physical health as they serve the Lord. They also entrust their children to the Lord as He continues to walk with them.

Pray for The World

- Please pray for central and southern China as the rainy season is causing deadly flooding in many areas. May the Lord help first responders as they rescue those trapped by the flood waters and be gracious to those who have suffered loss to find shelter and a means to recover.
- Please pray for the government and humanitarian agencies in the Congo as they battle the Ebola outbreak. May the Lord minimize the loss of life and help the medical workers be able to contain the epidemic and strengthen them as they treat those infected.
